New York Stock Market

New York, December 26.—The appearance of the stock market to-day after the triple holiday was hardly changed, and trading was in the same dull monotone as during the preceding week. With few exceptions price movements were only nominal. The market remained in the hands of professional operators, and there were no indications of the entrance of a new element for the present.

With has occurrences over the holiday.

With no occurrences over the holiday to influence the market, trading came to a complete standstill several times auring the day. The total transactions for the day were only slightly in excess of 200,000. Trading in bonds was again fairly active.

Among the few stocks which payed.

Among the few stocks which moved widely to-day, Lehigh Valley and Great Northern Ore certificates were conspic-uous. The ore certificates showed pro-Northern Ore certificates were conspicuous. The ore certificates showed pronounced weakness early in the day, selling for a time at a decline of three points. Lehigh Valley rose to the highest figure on record since it was listed in New York, but later lost more than it had gained. The selling presumably was based on reports of further post-ponement of action in regard to the segregation of the coal property from the railroad, concerning which Wall Street recently has heard much gossip, but no authenticated statement.

The copper group developed strength in the atternoon, Anaconda and Utair Copper making substantial gains. United States Sicel snowed monerate framess. Reports from the steel trade continued to be of invorable character, and it was estimated that by the first of the year the plaints of the Steel Copporation would be running at close to 85 per cent. of capacity.

Money rates showed no reflection of the impending heavy demands for Jan-

[Special to The Times-Dispatch,] Raleigh, N. C., December 26,—Joseph L. Seawell, who twenty-seven years ago entered the office as a barefooted messenger boy, to-day was sworn in as clerk of the Supreme Court to succeed Colonel Thomas S. Kenan, who died Sunday. There were several applicants for the position, but no other name was considered by members of the Supreme Court, and the election was unanimous. was unanimous

NAVAL HERO CELEBRATES

Admiral Dewey Is Seventy-four Years Old, but Still Active in Service.
Washington, December 26.—Admiral
George Dewey celebrated the seventyfourth anniversary of his birth to-day.
Twelve years after all other navai officers are by law retired from active service, the admiral was as busy at his desk in his office as he ever had been. To-night he received a few old friends at his home, among the callers

MAII. CARRIER ATTACKED.

Negroes Are Driven Off and Later Captured.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Etna Mills, Va., December 26.—
Charles Houston, star route mail carrier from Hanover Courthouse to Glob, was attacted yesterday by three young negroes—James Hill, Lee Jackson and Langston Washington—whose motive it is believed was to selze the mail hag. Mr. Houston drove them off after fring at them twice with his pistol. The negroes were en route to King William county by way of Norment's bridge, across the Pamunkey River, but turned back, and while attempting to reach King William by Nelson bridge, were overtaken by Sheriff J. S. Jones and a deputy. They were lodged in the county jail at Hanover. Later in the day they were arraigned. Their parents secured lawyers to aid them and succeeded in getting James Hill and Langston Washington out of the trouble, but Lee Jackson was held for the Federal grand jury.
